FOR THE RECORD

"Crafting a Gem," beginning on page 80 of the February/March 2016 issue, should have made clear that after an architect allotted space for a larger kitchen in a Rumson home that was rebuilt after Hurricane Sandy, Town & Country Kitchen and Bath designed the kitchen, including all of the cabinetry and molding. The homeowners credited Christine Bolton of Town & Country with creating a kitchen that is "timeless and spirited" and with weaving their vision of a "classic kitchen with components that have kept the space lively and up to date."
